

2. The reversible shutter for dwellings with windows will allow retailers to inventory 50% less product.
3. The reversible shutter for dwellings with windows will allow retailers to carry the same number of choices for customers, but with 50% less product on the shelf.
- 5 4. The reversible shutter for dwellings with windows will allow users to change the appearance of the dwelling at any time once the reversible shutters are installed. Reversing shutters after installation is necessary in cases where mold, stains, or damage has occurred to the exposed side of the reversible shutter.
- 10 5. The reversible shutter for dwellings with windows is made with material consisting of metal, plastic, wood, injection molded rubber, plastic, fiberglass, or graphite, or any combination of these materials.